1. CALL TO ORDER

At 6:02 p.m. Chair Matt Hart called the meeting to order with a quorum present.

2. CITIZEN COMMENTS

There were no citizen comments.
3. CULTURAL ARTS MASTER PLAN REPORT AND TASK FORCE UPDATE
Lynn Osgood, representative of Go Collaborative, consultants on the Cultural Arts Master Plan, gave an update on the progress of the planning process. Lynn has met with a number of stakeholders, representatives of the art community, and BISD students. She discussed ideas for creating a Bastrop Arts Commission to which BAIPP would serve in an advisory capacity. This Commission would function as a traditional local government/board&commission arrangement, and could help support Bastrop as it grows into its next phases of growth where the arts and culture will need to be at the table in larger city conversations. The Arts Commission would be comprised of citizen volunteers who would serve in an advisory capacity to Council/Mayor and be supported by city staff (much like BAIPP is now). Their primary role would be to help shepherd the goals and objectives established by the arts and culture planning process - goals and objectives that reach beyond the realm of traditional public art. She plans to share those ideas with the Task Force and eventually present her findings to the City Council in December.

4. DAUGHTERS OF THE REPUBLIC OF TEXAS DISCUSSION
Vicky Rose and Anne Beck, with the Baron de Bastrop Chapter of the Daughters of the Republic of Texas (DRT) gave an update of their goal of donating a Stephen F. Austin and Baron de Bastrop statue to the City. She said that Austin founded the city and named it after the Baron. Clint Howard displayed a miniature of the two men, as an example of what the finished statue would look like. Rose and Beck indicated they thought the completed work would be most appropriately located in front of city hall. Ed moved and Billy seconded that BAIPP recommend that location to the Council. Motion passed unanimously. Clint said he would be willing to move other works currently in that location.

5. STAFF AND BOARD UPDATES
Colin reported that the City’s Attorney is completing the review of 2-D and 3-D art contracts and they should be ready shortly. He passed out the new map of art works locations and has arranged for copies to be available at the Visitor’s Center and elsewhere. The storage unit rented to house paint for the transformer project has been closed.

6. CONSENT AGENDA
The minutes from the October 3rd meeting were reviewed and approved. Andrea recommended that the “Moms” sculpture be moved to a more visible location, preferably Main St. Colin said he would look into that.

7. ADJOURNMENT
The meeting was adjourned at 7:43 p.m.
