Also present: Colin Guerra, Staff; citizen Barbara Sparks, guest Lynn Osgood

3. Greetings and Introductions: Barbara Sparks citizen attended as guest to sit in and made some comments about her prior volunteer work and several different committees she had participated on in prior years. Bill Ennis was announced as the new city council liaison to BAIPP, but he was not in attendance. The two new members were introduced, Dick Smith at place 8 and Billy Moore at place 9. Mr. Smith spoke about his experience as the Chair of the Main St. Board for 3 years; also his involvement on the Education Foundation, the Vision task force, and multiple other community engagement groups.

4. Citizen Comments: Ms. Sparks commented generally on her experiences with prior AIPP committees and her hopes to see a unified and more extensive involvement of the AIPP in overall culture in Bastrop. She also expressed her excitement and support for the Culture arts master lan.
5. Overview of BAIPP: Reviewed in brief attachment that was submitted with main comment by Colin that there is a change in the mission statement from “efficient” to “innovative”.

6. Lynn Osgood gave a presentation on the ongoing planning process for the master plan. She noted several different planning meetings and processes ongoing to gather information about needs and desires of the community. She particular mentioned that at a discussion at a community meeting that the “Old Iron Bridge” (which is actually a steel bridge- as was clarified and expounded upon by Dick Smith), is a priority to many community members. She also reviewed that there are going to be 2 elementary school projects, one at Cedar Creek Elementary (Blue Bonnet) and one at Emile elementary where the art students will make postcards that are then sent out to their families to help with engagement in the planning process. She noted the Cedar Creek date is 10/18/18 and the Emile date is 11/2/2018 at Rafflemania event. An abstract of her presentation follows:
   a. 400 art programs reviewed; 80% public, 20% private
   b. Most AIPPs work on commissioning and purchasing public art as enhancements to civic construction projects.
      i. Also they often provide artist services, public programs, exhibitions, educational workshops, cultural asset mapping, education, and temporary installations.
   c. Funding is often tied to capital improvement projects on a percentage basis.
   d. City Board often appoints an Art Commission, which then may have subcommittees for specific functions, such as a AIPP.

7. Consent Agenda: Consideration, discussion and possible actions to approve minutes from August 2018. Andrea moved and Diana seconded to accept minutes from August 2018.

8. Staff, Board, and Committee Reports:
   - Cultural arts and master plan: reviewed and discussed above with presentation and comments with Lynn Osgood.
   - Volunteer Appreciation Banquet: We are strongly encouraged to attend as a way to demonstrate support our committee, and to enjoy the company of other community members Nov 8, 2018 6:30 to 8:30 Bastrop Convention Center.
   - “Old Iron Bridge” (replaced in 1924 with steel bridge) and FY 19 Capital improvement priorities: currently the bridge project with initial engineering evaluation is the priority.
   - 2018 Art brochure is printed, Katie from Sticks has completed.
   - Digital Media Management: Sticks: Andrea is going to be our ongoing liaison to Sticks, will review past year of production and evaluate for ongoing contract.
   - Ed updated the Board on the progress of the Cultural Master Plan. The first meeting of the Advisory Task Force is scheduled for Tuesday, May 8th at 3 p.m.

9. Items for consideration and discussion:
   a. Changes to 2D: Andrea, Marlene and Anne Beck spent time this summer reviewing and updating our 2D art call with the addition of 3 categories for 2D art, with awards in each category. A comment about abandoned art that is not picked up in a timely manner was also added to the contract. They also removed the requirement for notarization of some of the documents. The document was submitted for review at the meeting. Marlin motions to submit the new contract to the city attorney for review, and Diana seconded with the motion accepted by unanimous vote.
b. Diana is planning to use the 2D new template to review and make some changes to the 3D art call and contract as well. She is going to try to have that completed by the next meeting for review.

10/3/2018 7:56PM Andrea made a movement to adjourn, Diana seconded, and motion was accepted.

Respectfully Submitted,
Ed Skarnulis   (minutes scribed and completed by Diana Yens as Mr. Skarnulis ran the meeting on this date).

Approved
