The Director of the Bastrop YMCA, Ms. Terry Moore, along with Brian Bowling, Program Director, spoke about the YMCA's Youth in Government Program. This is a national program which gives youth an opportunity to learn and participate in the areas of public speaking, writing, and debating while learning about civil engagement through competitions in the differently areas of government, including Legislative, Judicial, Media, and State Affairs.

Examples were given of changes that Youth have successful made in governmental policies as a direct result of this program. The Program Director advised of the deadline to sign up for participation in the program and informed the Council that the YMCA would coordinate with Dr. Lee.

5. STAFF REPORTS

5A. STAFF LIAISON REPORT

The Director of Public Works & Leisure Services, Trey Job, spoke about the importance of identifying the objectives of the Youth Advisory Council. He recommended that members consider "shadowing" or attending other City Board meetings to learn more about their objectives and how the YAC could work with them to achieve those goals.

Mr. Job shared "Save the Date" cards with the Council for the Volunteer Banquet on Thursday, November 8, 2018, and advised formal invitations would follow via US Mail.

There was discussion about following the City of Bastrop on its various social media sites and a reminder that City Council meets on the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month. YAC members were encouraged to attend so they can learn more about items on which the City is working. An example of a current working policy is one that would prohibit 3-D printing of a gun.

5B. YOUTH ADVISORY COUNCIL REPORTS

There was a request to promote Cedar Creek High School's Spring Fling on the City's Website. The Spring Fling is a community-wide health event organized by the National Honor Society.

An issue was raised that more study-friendly locations are needed around the City. The Bastrop Public Library is only open late 2 days per week. The Staff Liaison advised that WiFi is available in all City public buildings and in City Parks.

The YAC also raised the issue of a Recreation Center. The Staff Liaison about future growth expected for the City of Bastrop. An estimated 15,000 are expected to be built in coming years which is cause a population boom. He recommended that the YAC should have a conversation with City Council about bringing a recreation center to Bastrop.

This led to discussion about the obtain feedback from the YAC's peers. Dr. Lee recommended that members present to school groups in which they are already involved. Some key points to present were discussed, as well as the need for the member to report back to the YAC.
